

Next Steps

Sensory PMLD Curriculum Supporting School Development Plan Objectives for: 2022-2023

Sensory PMLD Curriculum Aim : To develop the Sensory Curriculum and to ensure that all staff have knowledge and access to any specialist training which will support progression of learning within the PMLD classes.

Intention	Target group(s); e.g. whole school, girls, boys, staff	Implementation	Who's Responsible?	Dates from and to:	Impact
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To establish and embed communication and exercise programmes including AAC for each child who requires this 	Staff/children	Team teach alongside programmes from Speech Therapist/physio therapists and OT- staff knowledge to be cascaded throughout the team	Class leads and staff teams	September 2022 to July 2023
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To progress learning through the sensory curriculum aiming for at least a 33% gain over the year within as many of the four focus areas as possible - Communication, Personal and social development and physical/sensory and Thinking Skills 	Children/young people with PMLD needs throughout school	To provide observation training for key staff to ensure that lesson observations are consistent and moderated enabling progress to be discussed within whole team	All staff with pupils using the sensory curriculum	September 2022- July 2023
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To provide support and modelling where needed to develop these skills through teaching MAPP targets 	Staff working Children/young people with PMLD needs throughout school	To ensure that pupils are able to organise and effectively manage their learning as independently as possible.	All staff delivering the sensory curriculum	September 2022- July 2023
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> For staff to be confident with using equipment will enhance learning opportunities including developing cultural capital for post 16 pupils in the PMLD classes 	Staff supporting Post 14/16 pupils	Develop pupils' experiences of creativity both in and out of school, increasing our cultural capital through exploring a range of artistic and creative places within the community and further afield. Using switch technology to enhance experience	Class staff	September 2022- July 2023

Review July 2023

Next Steps

Review July 2023